

KEEP CALM
IT'S ALMOST THE END
OF THE SEMESTER

The end of our spring semester is always a busy time, as projects and plans underway throughout the year come to fruition. Soon the hallways will be quiet and the parking lot will be accessible! Thank you for all that you have done for the College of Social Justice and Human Service; it has truly been a pleasure working with you in my position as Assistant to the Dean and I wish you all a successful end of the academic year and best wishes for a pleasant and productive summer. I look forward to working with you in my new role for the College of Health and Human Services! As Dean Gutteridge would say, "Onward and upward!" ~ Angie

In addition, I was surprised and was awarded the Dean's Outstanding Staff Award!

Thank you so much for this recognition 😊

The Outstanding Teaching Awards are based on the following criteria:

- Curricular Design and Delivery
- Student-Centered Focus
- Professional Role Modeling and Teaching Effectiveness

The Outstanding Staff Award is based on the following criteria:

- Outstanding contributions on the job and service
- Professional Activities Including Leadership and Loyalty
- Staff Member Makes A Positive and Professional Impact

Congratulations to Mick Dier on being honored as one of this year's UT Outstanding Teachers!

For the 41st year, The University of Toledo and The University of Toledo Alumni Association joined President Sharon Gaber and Provost Barrett in honoring six Outstanding Teachers and our very own Mick Dier, Lecturer in the Criminal Justice program was one of them! The Outstanding Teachers are selected by a committee of former Outstanding Teacher Award recipients and a representative from student government, who review the nominations. Congratulations Mick, we are so proud of the work you do to enhance the student experience!

ANNOUNCEMENTS FROM THE DEPARTMENT OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE, SOCIAL WORK AND LEGAL SPECIALTIES

As you may have seen on the UT News feed, Dr. Celia Williamson was recognized in the social services category for her efforts to fight human trafficking at the 21st annual YWCA Milestones: A Tribute to Women. Congratulations Celia on another well-deserved award! Your hard work and dedication in fighting human trafficking do not go unnoticed. We appreciate you and your contributions to our College, the social work program and our community! A special thanks to Dean Ingersoll who sponsored a table at this event!

On Monday, April 18th, the UTMC Interprofessional Immersive Simulation Center (IISC) conducted its first human trafficking simulation. Beth Stratmann & Nora Riggs, MEDTAPP Interns at the Human Trafficking & Social Justice Institute, worked closely with staff at the Simulation Center and UTMC to conduct Human Trafficking Lunch & Learn sessions for healthcare students. This resulted in the IISC Staff implementing this simulation. It is an exciting and innovative project that sets UT apart! Great job!!!

Congratulations to Dr. Kasey Tucker-Gail, Graduate Assistant Tara Butler and TPD Intern on a positive response to the town hall meeting with Chief Kral regarding the Toledo Initiative to Reduce Violence. You can read more at <http://www.toledoblade.com/Police-Fire/2016/04/26/Forum-covers-officer-actions-with-Toledo-police-chief-George-Kral.html>

Congratulations to Dr. Richard Johnson who has been promoted to Professor and congratulations to Dr. Wendi Goodwin-Fahncke and Dr. Debra Harmening who received tenure and promotion to associate professor! We wish you all much success in your faculty careers here at The University of Toledo!

ANNOUNCEMENTS FROM THE DEPARTMENT OF SCHOOL PSYCHOLOGY, HIGHER EDUCATION AND COUNSELOR EDUCATION

The faculty in the counselor education program are thrilled to announce that Madeline Clark will join the counseling faculty in the fall of 2016. Ms. Clark will defend her dissertation on April 8th and graduate from Old Dominion University. Her dissertation, titled, "The Relationship Between Counselors' Multicultural Counseling Competence and Poverty Beliefs," is being chaired by Dr. Jeffry Moe, a two-time UT counselor education graduate. She has published papers with the following titles, "The career experiences of women with major financial barriers" and, "Considering Intersectionality in Multiculturalism." She lists the following as her areas of interest: Multiculturalism/Diversity, Social Justice, Career Development, Poverty Issues in Counseling, Women's Issues, Community Mental Health, and Qualitative Research Methods. She is a Licensed Professional Counselor in the State of Virginia. Her research training includes expertise in both qualitative and quantitative methods.

Huynh Son, a first year doctoral student in the counselor education program, recently received notice that she has been selected as one of 23 National Board of Certified Counselor's Minority Fellows. The NBCC Minority Fellowship has been in place for 4 years and provides each fellow $20,000. Ms. Son is the fourth UT NBCC Fellow. Additional information regarding this program can be located here. We are very proud of and happy for Huynh.

Carla McGhee, a 2nd year doctoral student in the counselor education program, was nominated for an award by a student who is enrolled in Carla's course. Carla is an independently licensed clinical mental health counselor who is teaching our CMHC internship course this spring. Arielle, the nominator, is completing her master's degree in CMHC.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE FOLLOWING STUDENTS/GRADUATES OF THE HIGHER EDUCATION PROGRAM ON THEIR RECENT ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

Dr. Kristi Hottenstein, a member of the Monroe County cohort, who successfully defended her dissertation study, entitled A Qualitative Case Study on Human Subject Research Public Policy Implementation at One Selected Council on Undergraduate Research Institution. Dr. Dave Meabon was the chair of her dissertation committee. We wish Kristi much continuing success as the Vice President of Student Services at Jackson College.

Ann DeAngelo, soon to graduate from our master's program in Higher Education, who has accepted a position as an academic advisor at Rhodes State College. We wish Ann much success in this new position.

Shumiala Kinnear, a member of the Monroe County Doctoral Cohort, who recently accepted a position as the Assistant Vice President of Leadership and Regional Development, New York area at the University of Cincinnati Foundation.

Dr. Ashley Green, a graduate from our Higher Education master's program, who was appointed to a new position as the Assistant Dean of Administration at Michigan State University.
